Character generators create certain kinds of characters, from people to professions, to unique beings. Good for when you need that level of detail! This character description generator generates fairly random descriptions belonging to any race. However, some aspects of the description remain the same, and they are done to keep the general structure the same while randomizing important details. The generator considers the race being chosen arbitrarily and changes some of the details accordingly. For example, if the characters are elves, they will have a higher chance of looking good and clean, and of course they have elvis names and tend to relate to more Elvis-related villages and people. We withheld as many details as possible while explaining as much detail as possible. It may sound strange, but I did so mainly by explaining how the character looks rather than his character. I tried to make the appearance of the character, and the ambiguous personality traits dictated the kind of person he or she could be. For example, a character with a scar could receive it during a battle, but in this generator it might be due to a story of a former lover, an epic adventure, or a story of regaining honor. I hope that by doing this you will be able to loosen your imagination and fill in the blanks. One description all looks the same, but you can create hundreds of characters that are completely different. To get started, all you have to do is click the button to create an arbitrary description. Don't like the explanation? All you have to do is click again to get a new one. The Argonia are a race of humanoid lizards.
